

THE EAST TENNESSEE UNION FLAG.

THE UNION FLAG.

GEORGE GRISHAM, Editor & Pub'r
STEPHEN A. ROYALL, Assistant Editor.

We join no party which does not carry the Union Flag, and keep step to the music of the Union!

JONESBOROUGH, TENN.:
Friday, May 24, 1867.

THE UNION FLAG. 1867.
A Large Circulation than any other paper
in Upper East Tennessee.

For the last five years, but with them it may well be said: Oh consistency! thou art a Jewelry rarely to be found!

Where could there have been found twelve, or even six months ago, a Union man who would come out and say that he was in favor of the immediate restoration of every rebel in the State, to power. If there were any, they dared not come out and so express themselves. But where are they to-day?

Those claiming to be conservatives with the rebels, a part and parcel of their body, and with the infamous Etheridge at their head, who stinks in the nostrils of every patriot, and whose black-guardism is proverbial, together with one John Baxter, the head of the Central Committee, a bull-necked rebel bush-whacker, and one T. A. Nelson, formerly of this place, the disappointed office seeker, and Anti-emancipation-procla-mationist, whose head is still over the abolition of slavery, they are trying to stir up civil strife and bring about the shedding of blood. All you demagogues and seditionists you are doomed to utter disappointment, and will in the end wallow in your own mire and filth.

FOR GOVERNOR.

Hon. WM. G. BROWNLOW,
OF KNOX.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF
PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

JOHN EATON, Jr.,
OF SHELBY.

FOR CONGRESS, 1st DISTRICT,

Hon. R. R. BUTLER,
OF JOHNSON.

FOR STATE SENATOR, 1st DIST.

Hon. P. P. C. NELSON,
OF WASHINGTON.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE OF
WASHINGTON COUNTY,

Capt. NEWTON HACKER.

REPUBLICAN UNION STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

1st District—Hon. R. R. Butler.

2d District—Hon. J. W. North, Knoxville.

3d District—Dr. J. A. Faxon, Liberty, De-Kalo county.

4th District—Lewis Tillman, Shelbyville.

5th District—S. B. Brown, Nashville.

6th District—Dr. A. W. Hawkins, Dickson county.

7th District—Col. J. J. Roach.

8th District—Gen'l John Eaton, Jr., Memphis.

OFFICERS OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

CHAIRMAN—Hon. R. R. Butler. ASST. CHAIRMAN—
Capt. N. H. Brown. SECRETARY—E. F. Cook. SACR-
TARY—J. H. Thomas.

Loyalty vs. Treason.

The people of our State are again in the midst of a great political contest, and as heretofore during the late rebellion, it is loyalty against treason, patriots against traitors.
There can be but two political parties in the country, the one composed of those whose action in the late civil contest was regulated by the purest patriotism and the most unselfish devotion to country, while the other was made up of those whose hearts were black with treason, and who could, with scorn and contempt, trample the flag of our country in the dust; ignominy and curse the Constitution of the United States and who become murderers in the sight of God and man. Today, their hands are dripping with the blood of those who fell a sacrifice to their country's cause, and which cries to the very heavens for vengeance, pleading in the name of widows and orphans scattered throughout the length and breadth of the land. Shall their pleadings be in vain? Shall the cries of injured innocence fall upon a deaf ear? No!
Never! Never! We cannot so far forget a sacred duty to our departed friends, who, today, sleep in a patriot's graves.

And here let us ask the question, Who constitutes the great Republican party of Tennessee? Every soldier who knows the value of the great principles for which he fought in the late slave-holder's rebellion; every citizen whose patriotism was not the subject of traffic; to be sold down and taken up at pleasure, to suit convenience and pecuniary interest; all who are ardently attached to the government of the United States as the great exemplification of true Republicanism, and are in favor of peace and harmony in the State.

With such material as a party who can be asked to act, especially when the object to be accomplished is one of such transcendent importance to every loyal citizen of the State. The Republican party are in favor of rewarding loyalty and patriotism, while the anti-Lincoln, Johnson-slavery, conservative-rebel, copperhead-Etheridge party are in favor of making loyalty odious and contemptu-able in the sight of all high-minded and honorable men, women and children.

How pleasantly do they forget the celebrated declaration of the great Mogul at Washington, when, on the first day of April, 1865, he said, "Treason must be made odious, traitors must be punished and impropriated; they must not only be punished, but their social power must be destroyed; and after making treason odious, every Union man and the government should be reimbursed out of the pockets of those who have indulged this great suffering upon the country." Who, I would ask, cannot see in this declaration the subject of confiscation as advocated so ably and so powerfully by Mr.
Stevens, of Pennsylvania, in a speech recently made in the Congress of the United States. It is too plain to mistake. But again as to their party, and those who compose it. Every rebel in the State is, or claims to be, a conservative—an Etheridge supporter. Every one in the State who opposed Lincoln's emancipation proclamation is an Etheridge supporter. Every rebel sympathizer is an Etheridge supporter. Every deserter from the army is an Etheridge supporter, and I can add, there are a few men, and few like angels visit, who claim to have been Union men all the time and yet they are acting with the very class of men whom they profess to have opposed.

THE EAST TENNESSEE UNION FLAG.

GEORGE GRISHAM, Editor & Pub'r
STEPHEN A. ROYALL, Assistant Editor.

We join no party which does not carry the Union Flag,
and keep step to the music of the Union!

JONESBOROUGH, TENN.:
Friday, May 24, 1867.

THE UNION FLAG. 1867.
A Large Circulation than any other paper
in Upper East Tennessee.

For the last five years, but with them it may well be said: Oh consistency! thou art a Jewelry rarely to be found!

Where could there have been found twelve,
or even six months ago, a Union man who
would come out and say that he was in favor of the immediate restoration of every rebel
in the State, to power. If there were
any, they dared not come out and so express themselves. But where are they to-day?

Those claiming to be conservatives with the rebels, a part and parcel of their body, and
with the infamous Etheridge at their head,
who stinks in the nostrils of every patriot,
and whose black-guardism is proverbial, together with one John Baxter, the head of the Central Committee, a bull-necked rebel bush-whacker, and one T. A. Nelson, formerly of this place, the disappointed office seeker, and Anti-emancipation-procla-mationist, whose head is still over the abolition of slavery, they are trying to stir
up civil strife and bring about the shedding
of blood. All you demagogues and seditionists you are doomed to utter disappointment,
and will in the end wallow in your
own mire and filth.

FOR GOVERNOR.

Hon. WM. G. BROWNLOW,
OF KNOX.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF
PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

JOHN EATON, Jr.,
OF SHELBY.

FOR CONGRESS, 1st DISTRICT,

Hon. R. R. BUTLER,
OF JOHNSON.

FOR STATE SENATOR, 1st DIST.

Hon. P. P. C. NELSON,
OF WASHINGTON.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE OF
WASHINGTON COUNTY,

Capt. NEWTON HACKER.

REPUBLICAN UNION STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

1st District—Hon. R. R. Butler.

2d District—Hon. J. W. North, Knoxville.

3d District—Dr. J. A. Faxon, Liberty, De-Kalo county.

4th District—Lewis Tillman, Shelbyville.

5th District—S. B. Brown, Nashville.

6th District—Dr. A. W. Hawkins, Dickson
county.

7th District—Col. J. J. Roach.

8th District—Gen'l John Eaton, Jr., Memphis.

OFFICERS OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

CHAIRMAN—Hon. R. R. Butler. ASST. CHAIRMAN—
Capt. N. H. Brown. SECRETARY—E. F. Cook. SACR-
TARY—J. H. Thomas.

Loyalty vs. Treason.

The people of our State are again in the midst of a great political contest, and as
heretofore during the late rebellion, it is loyalty against treason, patriots against traitors.
There can be but two political parties in the country, the one composed of those whose
action in the late civil contest was regulated
by the purest patriotism and the most un-
selfish devotion to country, while the other
was made up of those whose hearts were black
with treason, and who could, with scorn and
contempt, trample the flag of our country in the dust; ignominy and curse the Constitution of the United States and who become murderers in the sight of God and man. Today, their hands are dripping with the blood of
those who fell a sacrifice to their country's
cause, and which cries to the very heavens
for vengeance, pleading in the name of widows and orphans scattered throughout the length and breadth of the land. Shall their pleadings be in vain? Shall the cries of injured innocence fall upon a deaf ear? No!
Never! Never! We cannot so far forget a sacred duty to our departed friends, who,
today, sleep in a patriot's graves.

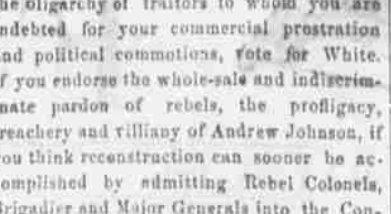

And here let us ask the question, Who
constitutes the great Republican party of Tennessee? Every soldier who knows the value of the great principles for which he fought in the late slave-holder's rebellion;
every citizen whose patriotism was not the subject of traffic; to be sold down and taken up at pleasure, to suit convenience and
pecuniary interest; all who are ardently attached to the government of the United States as the great exemplification of true
Republicanism, and are in favor of peace
and harmony in the State.

With such material as a party who can be
asked to act, especially when the object
to be accomplished is one of such transcendent importance to every loyal citizen of the State. The Republican party are in favor of rewarding loyalty and patriotism, while the
anti-Lincoln, Johnson-slavery, conservative-
rebel, copperhead-Etheridge party are in favor of making loyalty odious and contemptu-
able in the sight of all high-minded and honorable men, women and children.

How pleasantly do they forget the celebrated declaration of the great Mogul at Washington, when, on the first day of April, 1865, he said, "Treason must be made odious, traitors must be punished and improp-
riated; they must not only be punished, but
their social power must be destroyed; and
after making treason odious, every Union
man and the government should be reimbursed out of the pockets of those who have
indulged this great suffering upon the country." Who, I would ask, cannot see in this declaration the subject of confiscation as advocated so ably and so powerfully by Mr.
Stevens, of Pennsylvania, in a speech recently made in the Congress of the United States. It is too plain to mistake. But
again as to their party, and those who compose it. Every rebel in the State is, or
claims to be, a conservative—an Etheridge supporter. Every one in the State who opposed Lincoln's emancipation proclamation is an Etheridge supporter. Every rebel sympathizer is an Etheridge supporter. Every deserter from the army is an Etheridge
supporter, and I can add, there are a few men, and few like angels visit, who
claim to have been Union men all the time
and yet they are acting with the very class of men whom they profess to have opposed.

THE EAST TENNESSEE UNION FLAG.

GEORGE GRISHAM, Editor & Pub'r
STEPHEN A. ROYALL, Assistant Editor.

We join no party which does not carry the Union Flag,
and keep step to the music of the Union!

JONESBOROUGH, TENN.:
Friday, May 24, 1867.

THE UNION FLAG. 1867.
A Large Circulation than any other paper
in Upper East Tennessee.

For the last five years, but with them it may well be said: Oh consistency! thou art a Jewelry rarely to be found!

Where could there have been found twelve,
or even six months ago, a Union man who
would come out and say that he was in favor of the immediate restoration of every rebel
in the State, to power. If there were
any, they dared not come out and so express themselves. But where are they to-day?

Those claiming to be conservatives with the rebels, a part and parcel of their body, and
with the infamous Etheridge at their head,
who stinks in the nostrils of every patriot,
and whose black-guardism is proverbial, together with one John Baxter, the head of the Central Committee, a bull-necked rebel bush-whacker, and one T. A. Nelson, formerly of this place, the disappointed office seeker, and Anti-emancipation-procla-mationist, whose head is still over the abolition of slavery, they are trying to stir
up civil strife and bring about the shedding
of blood. All you demagogues and seditionists you are doomed to utter disappointment,
and will in the end wallow in your
own mire and filth.

FOR GOVERNOR.

Hon. WM. G. BROWNLOW,
OF KNOX.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF
PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

JOHN EATON, Jr.,
OF SHELBY.

FOR CONGRESS, 1st DISTRICT,

Hon. R. R. BUTLER,
OF JOHNSON.

FOR STATE SENATOR, 1st DIST.

Hon. P. P. C. NELSON,
OF WASHINGTON.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE OF
WASHINGTON COUNTY,

Capt. NEWTON HACKER.

REPUBLICAN UNION STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

1st District—Hon. R. R. Butler.

2d District—Hon. J. W. North, Knoxville.

3d District—Dr. J. A. Faxon, Liberty, De-Kalo county.

4th District—Lewis Tillman, Shelbyville.

5th District—S. B. Brown, Nashville.

6th District—Dr. A. W. Hawkins, Dickson
county.

7th District—Col. J. J. Roach.

8th District—Gen'l John Eaton, Jr., Memphis.

OFFICERS OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

CHAIRMAN—Hon. R. R. Butler. ASST. CHAIRMAN—
Capt. N. H. Brown. SECRETARY—E. F. Cook. SACR-
TARY—J. H. Thomas.

Loyalty vs. Treason.

The people of our State are again in the midst of a great political contest, and as
heretofore during the late rebellion, it is loyalty against treason, patriots against traitors.
There can be but two political parties in the country, the one composed of those whose
action in the late civil contest was regulated
by the purest patriotism and the most unselfish devotion to country, while the other
was made up of those whose hearts were black
with treason, and who could, with scorn and
contempt, trample the flag of our country in the dust; ignominy and curse the Constitution of the United States and who become murderers in the sight of God and man. Today, their hands are dripping with the blood of those who fell a sacrifice to their country's
cause, and which cries to the very heavens
for vengeance, pleading in the name of widows and orphans scattered throughout the length and breadth of the land. Shall their pleadings be in vain? Shall the cries of injured innocence fall upon a deaf ear? No!
Never! Never! We cannot so far forget a sacred duty to our departed friends, who,
today, sleep in a patriot's graves.

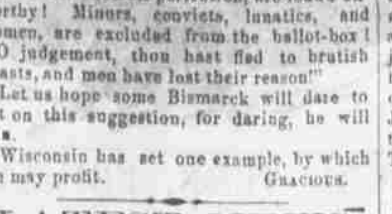

And here let us ask the question, Who
constitutes the great Republican party of Tennessee? Every soldier who knows the value of the great principles for which he fought in the late slave-holder's rebellion;
every citizen whose patriotism was not the subject of traffic; to be sold down and taken up at pleasure, to suit convenience and
pecuniary interest; all who are ardently attached to the government of the United States as the great exemplification of true
Republicanism, and are in favor of peace and harmony in the State.

With such material as a party who can be
asked to act, especially when the object
to be accomplished is one of such transcendent importance to every loyal citizen of the State. The Republican party are in favor of rewarding loyalty and patriotism, while the
anti-Lincoln, Johnson-slavery, conservative-
rebel, copperhead-Etheridge party are in favor of making loyalty odious and contemptu-
able in the sight of all high-minded and honorable men, women and children.

How pleasantly do they forget the celebrated declaration of the great Mogul at Washington, when, on the first day of April, 1865, he said, "Treason must be made odious, traitors must be punished and improp-
riated; they must not only be punished, but
their social power must be destroyed; and
after making treason odious, every Union
man and the government should be reimbursed out of the pockets of those who have
indulged this great suffering upon the country." Who, I would ask, cannot see in this declaration the subject of confiscation as advocated so ably and so powerfully by Mr.
Stevens, of Pennsylvania, in a speech recently made in the Congress of the United States. It is too plain to mistake. But
again as to their party, and those who compose it. Every rebel in the State is, or
claims to be, a conservative—an Etheridge supporter. Every one in the State who opposed Lincoln's emancipation proclamation is an Etheridge supporter. Every rebel sympathizer is an Etheridge supporter. Every deserter from the army is an Etheridge
supporter, and I can add, there are a few men, and few like angels visit, who
claim to have been Union men all the time
and yet they are acting with the very class of men whom they profess to have opposed.

THE EAST TENNESSEE UNION FLAG.

GEORGE GRISHAM, Editor & Pub'r
STEPHEN A. ROYALL, Assistant Editor.

We join no party which does not carry the Union Flag,
and keep step to the music of the Union!

JONESBOROUGH, TENN.:
Friday, May 24, 1867.

THE UNION FLAG. 1867.
A Large Circulation than any other paper
in Upper East Tennessee.

For the last five years, but with them it may well be said: Oh consistency! thou art a Jewelry rarely to be found!

Where could there have been found twelve,
or even six months ago, a Union man who
would come out and say that he was in favor of the immediate restoration of every rebel
in the State, to power. If there were
any, they dared not come out and so express themselves. But where are they to-day?

Those claiming to be conservatives with the rebels, a part and parcel of their body, and
with the infamous Etheridge at their head,
who stinks in the nostrils of every patriot,
and whose black-guardism is proverbial, together with one John Baxter, the head of the Central Committee, a bull-necked rebel bush-whacker, and one T. A. Nelson, formerly of this place, the disappointed office seeker, and Anti-emancipation-procla-mationist, whose head is still over the abolition of slavery, they are trying to stir
up civil strife and bring about the shedding
of blood. All you demagogues and seditionists you are doomed to utter disappointment,
and will in the end wallow in your
own mire and filth.

FOR GOVERNOR.

Hon. WM. G. BROWNLOW,
OF KNOX.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF
PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

JOHN EATON, Jr.,
OF SHELBY.

FOR CONGRESS, 1st DISTRICT,

Hon. R. R. BUTLER,
OF JOHNSON.

FOR STATE SENATOR, 1st DIST.

Hon. P. P. C. NELSON,
OF WASHINGTON.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE OF
WASHINGTON COUNTY,

Capt. NEWTON HACKER.

REPUBLICAN UNION STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

1st District—Hon. R. R. Butler.

2d District—Hon. J. W. North, Knoxville.

3d District—Dr. J. A. Faxon, Liberty, De-Kalo county.

4th District—Lewis Tillman, Shelbyville.

5th District—S. B. Brown, Nashville.

6th District—Dr. A. W. Hawkins, Dickson
county.

7th District—Col. J. J. Roach.

8th District—Gen'l John Eaton, Jr., Memphis.

OFFICERS OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

CHAIRMAN—Hon. R. R. Butler. ASST. CHAIRMAN—
Capt. N. H. Brown. SECRETARY—E. F. Cook. SACR-
TARY—J. H. Thomas.

Loyalty vs. Treason.

The people of our State are again in the midst of a great political contest, and as
heretofore during the late rebellion, it is loyalty against treason, patriots against traitors.
There can be but two political parties in the country, the one composed of those whose
action in the late civil contest was regulated
by the purest patriotism and the most un-
selfish devotion to country, while the other
was made up of those whose hearts were black
with treason, and who could, with scorn and
contempt, trample the flag of our country in the dust; ignominy and curse the Constitution of the United States and who become murderers in the sight of God and man. Today, their hands are dripping with the blood of
those who fell a sacrifice to their country's
cause, and which cries to the very heavens
for vengeance, pleading in the name of widows and orphans scattered throughout the length and breadth of the land. Shall their pleadings be in vain? Shall the cries of injured innocence fall upon a deaf ear? No!
Never! Never! We cannot so far forget a sacred duty to our departed friends, who,
today, sleep in a patriot's graves.

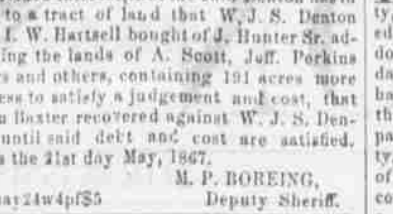

And here let us ask the question, Who
constitutes the great Republican party of Tennessee? Every soldier who knows the value of the great principles for which he fought in the late slave-holder's rebellion;
every citizen whose patriotism was not the subject of traffic; to be sold down and taken up at pleasure, to suit convenience and
pecuniary interest; all who are ardently attached to the government of the United States as the great exemplification of true
Republicanism, and are in favor of peace
and harmony in the State.

With such material as a party who can be
asked to act, especially when the object
to be accomplished is one of such transcendent importance to every loyal citizen of the State. The Republican party are in favor of rewarding loyalty and patriotism, while the
anti-Lincoln, Johnson-slavery, conservative-
rebel, copperhead-Etheridge party are in favor of making loyalty odious and contemptu-
able in the sight of all high-minded and honorable men, women and children.

How pleasantly do they forget the celebrated declaration of the great Mogul at Washington, when, on the first day of April, 1865, he said, "Treason must be made odious, traitors must be punished and improp-
riated; they must not only be punished, but
their social power must be destroyed; and
after making treason odious, every Union
man and the government should be reimbursed out of the pockets of those who have
indulged this great suffering upon the country." Who, I would ask, cannot see in this declaration the subject of confiscation as advocated so ably and so powerfully by Mr.
Stevens, of Pennsylvania, in a speech recently made in the Congress of the United States. It is too plain to mistake. But
again as to their party, and those who compose it. Every rebel in the State is, or
claims to be, a conservative—an Etheridge
supporter. Every one in the State who opposed Lincoln's emancipation proclamation is an Etheridge supporter. Every rebel sympathizer is an Etheridge supporter. Every deserter from the army is an Etheridge
supporter, and I can add, there are a few men, and few like angels visit, who
claim to have been Union men all the time
and yet they are acting with the very class
of men whom they profess to have opposed.

THE EAST TENNESSEE UNION FLAG.

GEORGE GRISHAM, Editor & Pub'r
STEPHEN A. ROYALL, Assistant Editor.

We join no party which does not carry the Union Flag,
and keep step to the music of the Union!

JONESBOROUGH, TENN.:
Friday, May 24, 1867.

THE UNION FLAG. 1867.
A Large Circulation than any other paper
in Upper East Tennessee.

For the last five years, but with them it may well be said: Oh consistency! thou art a Jewelry rarely to be found!

Where could there have been found twelve,
or even six months ago, a Union man who
would come out and say that he was in favor of the immediate restoration of every rebel
in the State, to power. If there were
any, they dared not come out and so express themselves. But where are they to-day?

Those claiming to be conservatives with the rebels, a part and parcel of their body, and
with the infamous Etheridge at their head,
who stinks in the nostrils of every patriot,
and whose black-guardism is proverbial, together with one John Baxter, the head of the Central Committee, a bull-necked rebel bush-whacker, and one T. A. Nelson, formerly of this place, the disappointed office seeker, and Anti-emancipation-procla-mationist, whose head is still over the abolition of slavery, they are trying to stir
up civil strife and bring about the shedding
of blood. All you demagogues and seditionists you are doomed to utter disappointment,
and will in the end wallow in your
own mire and filth.

FOR GOVERNOR.

Hon. WM. G. BROWNLOW,
OF KNOX.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF
PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

JOHN EATON, Jr.,
OF SHELBY.

FOR CONGRESS, 1st DISTRICT,

Hon. R. R. BUTLER,
OF JOHNSON.

FOR STATE SENATOR, 1st DIST.

Hon. P. P. C. NELSON,
OF WASHINGTON.